DAISY IN THE FIELD

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 108 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.2in.Excerpt: . . . long while, you know, papa. She wanted them to go and join Beauregard. And will they Is that what they are gone for I do not know if they will, papa. I suppose Mr. De Saussure will. And not Marshall I do not know about him. What did you do, Daisy Papa - you know I do not like the war. How about liking the gentlemen I am glad they are gone. Well, so am I, papa answered; but what had you to do with sending them home Nothing, papa, - only that I unfortunately did not want them to stay. And you could not offer them any reward for going Papa, a man who would do such a thing for reward, would not be a man. I think so too, Daisy. Your mother somehow takes a different view. She cares only for the soldier, papa; not for the man. Papa was silent and thoughtful. There were no other intimate friends about us in Geneva; and our life became, I must confess, less varied and pleasant after the young men had gone. At first I felt only the relief; then the dulness began to creep in. Papa led the life of an invalid, or of one who had been an invalid; not an active life in any way; I thought, not active enough for his good. Some hours I got of reading with him; reading to him, and talking of what we read; they did my father good, and me too; but they were few, and often cut short. As soon as mamma joined us, our books had to be laid aside. They bored her, she said,...
